A request that everyone feel free to have urgent responsibility to investigate truth: collect. compile and report on truth and make their manufacturing/production/trade/profession/art/ornaments/decorations/aesthetics/entertainment represent truth, proclaim truth, and thereby making their art meritorious and a superior alternative to fiat currency for humanity's happiness. This is the most important of the other 2 facets or concepts, entirely irrelevant to the other 2 facets/concepts which are entirely the style, preference, and attempts of another human being to communicate Opinions are like every other organ essential for bodily essential functions = everyone has them..
